

Days of Prayer and Reflection

Cost: $60 per program

Unless otherwise indicated, all day programs begin at 9:00 a.m. and end at 4:00 p.m.

Price is per person and includes lunch as well as morning coffee. You are invited to attend any one or all these days of prayer and reflection. These programs are a great way to get that “day away” you always promise yourself to help recharge your batteries! Please note that reservations for all days of prayer/reflection must be made at least one week before the day of the program.

Deep Peace of the Quiet Earth

Date: February 29, 2020

Director: Kathryn Cleary

With this Celtic Prayer of Blessing, we will reflect upon Jesus’ promise: “Peace I give you”

Finding God in the Ordinary

Date: March 22, 2020

Director: William Barry, SJ

We will look at stories and events in ordinary life that reveal the presence of God. The hope is that participants will begin to notice the presence of God in their daily lives.

Meditating on Mary’s Loving Gaze Upon Us and Our Families

Director: Kathy Simisky

Date: May 2, 2020

We will meditate on the healing power of the family to support our growth in humanness and holiness in light of Pope Francis’ teaching on how much our world needs the tender embrace of a mother’s love, as Mary models for us.

How Fathers & Children Nurture Each Other’s Spiritual Lives: An Ignatian Perspective

Director: Robert Weber, Ph.D.

Date: June 13, 2020

In anticipation of Father’s Day, this Day of Prayer will be eye-opening, heart-widening, and spirit-deepening for both parents and children - the fruit of which will result in a greater ability to “live life to the full.”

Acceptance of Acceptance

Date: September 19, 2020

Director: Kathryn Cleary

“Faith is the acceptance of acceptance” wrote the theologian Paul Tillich. We will gather to pray with the call to this faith, with the practice of compassion toward ourselves and others.

God’s Harvest in our Hearts

Date: October 3, 2020

Director: Kathryn Cleary

“Your harvest is in our hearts,” writes the poet Keesey. During our day of prayer, we will reflect on the theme of harvest, both in our care for creation and in our care for ourselves.

Add Forgiveness to Your Thanksgiving Menu: Incorporating the Ignatian Examen

Director: Robert Weber, Ph.D.

Date: November 21, 2020

This Day of Prayer offers some ways in which we might enhance our thanksgiving by incorporating forgiveness into our Thanksgiving Day festivities. Building on the Ignatian Examen, the day’s prayer and reflection will emphasize gratitude and forgiveness, cornerstones of the Ignatian Examen.

Waiting in Hope

Date: December 12, 2020

Robert Braunreuther, SJ

This Advent Day of Prayer is an opportunity to reflect on Hebrew and Christian Scripture as part of our spiritual preparation for “the appearance of the glory of the great God and of our Savior, Jesus Christ.” (Titus 2:13) Come, as Paul invites to go inward “as we await the blessed hope” and reflect on Isaiah’s promise that “the people who walked in darkness have seen a great light; those who dwelt in a land of deep darkness, on them has light shone.” Spend a quiet day with an expectant Mary, reflecting on the words of Isaiah. She represents all of us as we wait in hope. Enjoy a day of private prayer and reflection. The Sacraments of Reconciliation and Holy Eucharist will be offered as part of the day.

Weekend Retreats

Introduction to the Spiritual Exercises and Ignatian Prayer

Cost: $220

Dates: January 17 - 20, 2020

Directors: Tom McMurray, SJ, Nancy Sheridan, SASV

This extended prayer weekend will introduce retreatants to important principles of Ignatian prayer and engage them in key meditations/contemplations from the Spiritual Exercises. The retreat combines elements from both guided and directed retreats, with conferences/points for the group as well as one-on-one meetings with a director. The retreat begins with dinner Friday at 5:45 and ends with lunch on Monday.

Human Freedom & Responsible Action: Fruits of Discernment

Cost: $200

Dates: February 21-23, 2019

Director: Donna Fannon

This “February-break” weekend retreat is designed for campus ministers, student development professionals, secondary and post-secondary educators, administrators, and coaches. We will practice using dynamics of Ignatian spirituality - especially spiritual discernment - as tools for work with our students in the classroom, on the field, across all campus activities. Special attention will be devoted to decisions related to faith and justice. With the “Principle and Foundation” from the Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius as our guide, we will look at how we help students (and ourselves) to recognize and appreciate God’s gifts to us; and to reflect on how generous we are in sharing our gifts in order to do our part in the building of the Kingdom of God. We will engage in various forms of prayer during the three days including: guided meditation, the Examen, private prayer and reflection, journaling, and faith-sharing. The Sacraments of Reconciliation and Holy Eucharist will be offered during this retreat.

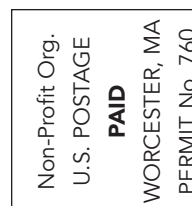

Ignatian Prayer and the Sacred Triduum

Cost: $220

Dates: April 9-12, 2020

Directors: Ginny Blass, DMin, Harry Cain, SJ

Through imaginative prayer and the fruits of the Ignatian Examen, we will ask for the graces that allow us to more deeply experience our relationships with God, self, and the world. We will spend time reflecting on the sacred stories of the life, passion, death, and resurrection of Jesus Christ: “the heart of the mystery of our salvation.” (Pope Francis)

Campion Center Conference & Renewal is a ministry of the USA Northeast Province of the Society of Jesus (Jesuits). Our primary purpose is to enhance the lives of women and men of faith through a wide range of programs including days of prayer, retreats, the Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius of Loyola, ongoing spiritual direction and conferences. Among the Center’s goals are to help people discover and enter into closer union with the God who labors in love for the good for all, to foster a deep personal love for Jesus Christ, to help facilitate collaboration with laity and clergy for the benefit of the Church, and to make our resources available to women and men of many faith traditions seeking a relationship with God.

Conferences & Hosted Programs

Campion Center Conference & Renewal is a place of hospitality and encounter that offers conference and meeting spaces for groups that are as small as 10 guests and as large as 200 guests. As a multifaceted day/residential conference center, Campion serves as a lively hub for many professional and apostolic groups that are looking for a place to gather for strategic planning meetings, professional development, and continuing education. We have 70 individual bedrooms, 10 meeting rooms for groups of ten to 250 persons, four Chapels with capacity of five to 250 persons, a lovely dining room serving truly delicious homemade meals, and wireless internet access. We can accommodate evening, one-day, weekend and weekly group rentals. Please call the Campion Center Conference & Renewal office to make reservations.

Spiritual Direction: Campion Center Conference & Renewal has several well-trained, experienced women and men available for the ministry of spiritual direction. If you are interested in ongoing spiritual direction, please contact the Campion Center Conference & Renewal office.

Directed Retreats: In a directed retreat a director is partnered with a retreatant. In daily meetings the director, retreatants are aided in:

- noticing the God’s presence and activity
- coming to trust what has been noticed
- responding to this presence and activity

Prayerful reflection, often with Sacred Scripture, in an environment of contemplative silence is a helpful setting for this process. The director and the retreatant try to be sensitive and responsive to where retreatants are in their journey with God. The director’s role is to support retreatants in their attentiveness to the movements of the Holy Spirit as they emerge in the retreatant’s prayer. As you prepare to come for your retreat, we invite you to be open and generous in your desire to spend these days with the Lord in quiet recollection. Please plan to arrive in time for dinner at 5:45 p.m. on the first evening of the retreat. The retreat ends with lunch on the last day. Mass is offered on all but the first day. Reservations for all directed retreats must be made at least one week before the start of the retreat.

Private Retreats

Cost: $85 per day

In addition to our scheduled retreats and other programs, individuals are welcome to come to the Center to make a private retreat. A private retreat is made without a director. Please note that reservations for a private retreat must be made at least one week before the start of the retreat.

Gift Certificates: To purchase a gift certificate, visit or call the Campion Center Conference & Renewal office.

Directions

By automobile: from the west take the Mass Pike (I-90) to I-95/Rte. 128. Take I-95/Rte. 128 north to exit 26 (Rte. 20). Take Rte. 20 west, and after about a mile take a right at the first regular (not blinking) traffic light. After a short block, take a left and go through the small commercial center of Weston. Shortly after the center of town, look for Concord Road on the right. Follow Concord Road for about three quarters of a mile until the fork in the road. At the fork, go left and wind around up the hill for about half a mile. Campion Center conference & Renewal is on the right and our parking lot is on the left. From the north and south on I-95 (Rte. 128): Take exit 26 (Rte. 20) Follow directions above.

From Logan Airport: consider taking Massport’s “Logan Express” to Framingham and then taking a taxi to Campion Center Conference & Renewal. The “Logan Express” runs on a regular schedule and stops at all airline terminals. Please visit Massport’s website at www.massport.com for additional information on ground transportation to/from Boston’s Logan International Airport.

The Spiritual Exercises (30-day retreat)

October 3, 2020 to November 1, 2020

Cost: $2,500 Non-refundable application fee of $50 and deposit of $100 are required

Individuals interested in making the Spiritual Exercises, the “long” or the “30-day” retreat, are expected to be in an on-going spiritual direction relationship and have made at least two eight-day silent retreats. Retreatants should plan to arrive between 9:00 and 3:00 on Friday October 2, 2020. The retreat begins the following day, Saturday, October 3, 2020 and ends with Eucharist on the morning of November 1, 2020, the Feast of All Saints. Retreatants are expected to be available for the entire period of the retreat. The spectacular autumn foliage for which New England is world-famous will provide retreatants with breath-taking natural beauty in which to deepen one’s relationship with God.

The Spiritual Exercises in Everyday Life (19th annotation retreat)

Cost: $850 Non-refundable application fee of $50 and deposit of $100 are required

This retreat is designed for those wishing to make the Spiritual Exercises, but who cannot make a full-time 30-day retreat. Experienced directors are available throughout most of the year for this retreat. Interested individuals should be in on-going spiritual direction and should have made individually directed retreats in the past. Most people take about 30 weeks to complete a 19th annotation retreat. Interview will be scheduled after applications are completed.
